

JOB OPENING

Phone Bankers | Texas Freedom Network Education Fund

Location: UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON-DOWNTOWN

The Texas Freedom Network Education Fund (www.tfn.org), a statewide, nonprofit organization seeks temporary Phone Bankers. The Texas Freedom Network Education Fund is a nonpartisan, grassroots organization of religious and community leaders that advances a mainstream agenda supporting public education, religious freedom and civil liberties.

Phone Bankers will work to expand the overall outreach efforts of the organization with respect to our non-partisan civic engagement work. Texas Freedom Network Education Fund is focused on turning out 18-29 year olds to vote in the 2016 presidential election. This position will be based in Houston, TX.

Texas Freedom Network is looking to hire highly motivated exceptional phone bankers to join our exciting campaign this fall. We have immediate openings and are seeking self-starting, energetic, progressive and responsible phone bankers. This position will last approximately 2 weeks and is a part-time, seasonal position.

Job Description

- Contact voters by phone using a script and ask a series of questions from that script. Collect and enter responses into a computer, and collect and manage data.
- Regular check-ins with TFNEF staff about ongoing call progress.
- Be available to work:
 - Training (5:00-7:00pm): Monday, October 17th
 - Shift 1 (4:00-7:00pm): Saturday, October 29th
 - Shift 2 (5:30-8:30pm): Thursday, November 3rd
 - Shift 3 (5:30-8:30pm): Monday, November 7th

Requirements

- Energetic and positive attitude, must be able to talk on the phone and have meaningful conversations with voters
- Considerate and professional
- Teamwork and a positive attitude are critical to the success of the campaign
- Care about progressive politics, youth organizing and grassroots communities
- Able to take direction from Outreach staff
- Simple writing and data entry ability as well as note-taking
- Own transportation
- Bilingual; English and Spanish (a plus)
- Previous experiences as a phone banker on a non-profit or political campaign (a plus)

COMPENSATION: Positions have a commitment to attend all scheduled training and shifts as noted above. $10.00 hour. Callers will work a total of 11 hours earning a total of $110.

TO APPLY: Email ali@tfn.org.

The Texas Freedom Network/Texas Freedom Network Education Fund is an equal-opportunity employer, and people of color are highly encouraged to apply.